

BEAUFORT ART ASSOCIATION 2017 SPRING SHOW WINNERS

Best In Show - Bill Cochrane Memorial Award: Susan Graber for “Ellen.”

1st Place – Polly Swenson Memorial Award: Kim Painter for “Wonderful Tonight”

2nd Place – Pat Conroy Memorial Award: Linda Sheppard for “Sunset Over Waterfront Park”

3rd Place – Joseph Darling/Earl Morgan Memorial Award: Andrew Lyons for “Lime Aides”

BAA Founders Award: Joan Templer for “After the Storm”

Palmetto Special Award: Pam Hagan for “Felicity”

Hampton Wildlife Fund Natural Resources Award: Margery Boyle for “Blue Heron”

A Memorial Award of Excellence/Haigh-McFee Family Memorial Award went to Jennifer Kassing Bradley for “Flat Oyster Shell.”

Memorial Awards of Achievement:

Joy Keyserling Memorial Award: Phyllis Kaupp-Seas for “Heavenly Flashlight”

Leith Paul Trask Memorial Award: Marian Sanders for “Ms. Swan”

E. Carew Rice, III Memorial Award: Lynne Morgan for “McPherson Square”

Julian Levin Memorial Award: Patricia Walsh for “The Tide Pool”

In the high school competition, ninety-seven students submitted artwork from Battery Creek and Whale Branch high schools.

Best In Show/Geneva Litchfield Memorial: Trevaughn Nelson from Whale Branch for “Hope”

First Place – Jamie Polite from Battery Creek for “Singing in 3-D”

Second Place – Alexia Ortega from Battery Creek for “Loneliness”

Third Place – Nia Sutton from Whale Branch for her “Self-Portrait”